

US History - CH 10 Test Review

---

There were some major changes in the way goods were produced during the mid-1700s. Where did these changes first appear?

Where did America's Industrial Revolution first take shape?

Who was the inventor of the cotton gin? What is the cotton gin and how did it affect the economy?

How far west did the National Road extend? What was its purpose?

What tariff was being implemented in order to stimulate growth of American industries?

What is an example of US military strength?

What "revolution" changed the way people worked?

What do we call scientific discoveries which simplify labor? What are some examples?

Whose mill launched the factory system?

What was the population of the US after the first census? What was the population 30 years after the first census? What is the importance of the US census?

What agreement provided disarmament along the Canadian/US border?

What piece of important American foreign policy was instituted in 1823?

What are the advantages and disadvantages of traveling on a river in America during the 1800s?